EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: In claim 1, line 16, deleted "to".

It appears that the inclusion of this word is a typographical error.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claims are allowable over the prior art of record because the teachings of the references taken as a whole do not teach or render obvious the combination set forth, including that of an anti-panic mechanism for a vehicle door latch having an open lever, a lock lever, an open link, where displacement from the open lever is transmitted through the open link to a ratchet pin of a ratchet to unlatch the vehicle door latch device, a movable member between the open link and the lock lever, and an anti-panic spring connecting the lock lever with the movable member, where the movable member and the lock lever are coaxially pivoted on a common shaft, where the anti-panic spring is engaged on the same common shaft.

Art Unit: 3676

The closest prior art of record, U.S. Patent Number 5,653,484 to Brackmann et al., discloses a vehicle door latch mechanism having an open lever (5), a lock lever (6 and 9), an open link (10), a movable member (7) disposed between the open link and the lock lever, and an anti-panic spring (25) connecting the lock lever with the movable member, where the movable member and the lock lever are coaxially pivoted on a common shaft, where the anti-panic spring is engaged on the same common shaft. However, Brackmann et al. discloses the ratchet (27) being actuated by the open lever not the open link.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
